1. Question: I have a handful of clients to help them maintain their machine-readable files and compliances. We're struggling a little bit with the TXT files. We have a handful of clients that are unable to put it at their root of the hospital, so we're trying to figure out a subdomain on our application. Are there any resources or anything that you guys have heard that can help us direct our clients with those TXT files?
  - a. Answer: We recommend reviewing the updated Hospital Price Transparency TXT File FAQs which contain new guidance for addressing the specific challenges you're facing. Please let us know of any additional questions.
