

Change in Low-Income Subsidy Status Due to Change in Personal Circumstances

---

Changes in LIS Deemed Status

Some people with Medicare will continue to qualify for extra help with prescription drug coverage in 2010, but the amount of extra help they have may change.

Beginning this summer and continuing through the fall, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) is determining which individuals will be automatically eligible for the Low Income Subsidy (LIS) for calendar year 2010 based on monthly data from State Medicaid Agencies and SSA. Individuals are deemed eligible for the 2010 calendar year, or what remains of it if they newly qualify mid-year. If someone experienced changes in their personal or financial circumstances during 2009, he/she may be responsible for a different level of copayments for his/her extra help in 2010.

Early October

CMS mails change in extra help copayment level (see link below) notices to people who will continue to automatically qualify for extra help in 2010, but whose copayment levels will change as of January 1, 2010. The notice informs these people what their copayment will be in 2010.

Why Copayments Can Change

The change in copayment level could result when a person with Medicare changes from one of the following categories to another:

- Institutionalized with Medicare and Medicaid,
- Has Medicare and Medicaid,
- Has Medicare and Medicaid and a change in income level,
- Receives help from Medicaid paying Medicare premiums (belongs to a Medicare Savings Program), or
- Receives Supplemental Security Income benefits but not Medicaid.

For example, if someone with both Medicare and Medicaid moved out of a nursing home in sometime prior to July, 2009, then he or she will no longer qualify for a $0 copayment effective January 1, 2010.

Note: People with no changes who continue to automatically qualify for extra help as of January 1, 2010, won't get a notice saying their automatic eligibility continues in 2010.
