

Figure 10. Average number of hours in PT and PTA education programs, 1999-2000

* Students may have additional clinic hours in part-time placements.

Note: PT is physical therapist; PTA is physical therapist assistant. "Integrated 2-year" programs allow students to take general education courses during each year of the program. Students in "1+1" programs complete all general education requirements in the first year.