Track ICD-10 Progress and Manage Your Revenue Cycle

Now is a good time to review how you use ICD-10.

Key performance indicators (KPIs) can help you manage your revenue cycle and track your ICD-10 progress.

By tracking and comparing KPIs, you can:

- Assess progress to identify any productivity or cash flow issues
- Address opportunities to improve revenue cycle management
- Maintain progress and keep up-to-date on ICD-10

To find out more about tracking and improving how you use ICD-10, check out the Next Steps Toolkit.
