

Medicare Physician Fee Schedule Search Help

Below you will find instructions for each of the steps in the Medicare Physician Fee Schedule Search application.

Step 1 Instructions

1. Select the year of the Medicare Physician Fee Schedule that you want to see.
2. HCPC Options: Select one of the three options.
 - Single HCPC Code - allows you to search for information for one procedure code.
 - List of HCPC Codes - allows you to search for information for up to 5 procedure codes; you need at least two procedure codes to use this option.
 - Range of HCPC Codes - allows you to search for information for a range of procedure codes; you need to enter starting and ending procedure codes for your range.

Note: It is recommended that you use a small range since the response time will be longer for a larger range.

3. Type of Information: Select one of the four types of information that you want to search.
 - Pricing Information - provides pricing amounts and all of the components (RVUs, GPCIs, payment policy indicators, etc.) used to calculate the prices.
 - Payment Policy Indicators - provides only payment policy indicators information.
 - Relative Value Units - provides only Relative Value Units information.
 - Geographical Practice Cost Index - provides only Geographical Practice Cost Index information.

Step 2 Instructions

1. Carrier Options: You will see these options if you've selected pricing information or GPCIs for the Type of Information option on the first page.

Select one of the three options -

- All Carriers - allows you to search for information for the entire nation.

- Specific Carrier - allows you to search for information for a specific Part B carrier. On the next page you will be provided with a list of carriers to choose the carrier of your interest.
- Specific Locality - allows you to search for information for a specific Part B carrier locality. On the next page you will be provided with a list of carrier localities to choose the locality of your interest.

2. Field Options:

- All Fields - all fields that are related to the type of information will be displayed.
- Default Fields - subset of fields will be displayed.
