

Pre-Rule Making Frequently Asked Questions:

Purpose:

The purpose of this document is to provide stakeholder guidance related to the pre-rule making processes. These processes are a result of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010. CMS' goal is to be transparent providing interested audiences and stakeholders with information which enhances CMS' ability to meet its quality and efficiency measurement goals. As a result of the legislation in 2011, CMS published the first Measures under Consideration (MUC) List for the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) by December 1st. Each year no later than December 1st, CMS is statutorily required to publish this List.

The National Quality Forum's (NQF), Measures Application Partnership (MAP) DHHS' consensus-based entity convenes each winter to fulfill its statutory requirement of providing input to HHS on measures under consideration for use in CMS' federal programs. These federal programs are named explicitly in the Act. The MAP consists of four workgroups including: Clinicians, PAC/LTC, Hospitals, and the Coordinating Committee. Annually, each December and January, the MAP workgroups and the Coordinating Committee meet to provide program-specific recommendations to DHHS by February 1st with the first report published and submitted to DHHS on February 1, 2012, and then each year thereafter.

CMS considers this document to be a "living" source of pre-rule making information. Since the first MUC/MAP cycle in 2011, CMS has learned through experience the nuances of the pre-rule making, the condensed time-line, overlapping rule-making program calendars, and to overcome the challenges of the federal clearance process to ensure pre-rule making statutory requirements are met. CMS' quality and efficiency measurement goals align with the National Quality Strategy (NQS). Pre-rule making is designed to improve health outcomes and healthcare quality by assisting with the selection of measures that produce publically reported performance results for transparency and healthcare decision-making, aligning payment with value, rewarding providers and professionals for using health information technology (health IT) to improve patient care.

The following are a list of frequently asked questions (FAQs) with regard to pre-rule making and have been broken up into four common themes including CMS' 2015 Pre-Rule Making Milestones, Measures under Consideration Events, Measures Application Partnership Events and JIRA CMS' Measures under Consideration Tracking System. The documents intended audience is federal DHHS agencies, organizations contracted with these federal agencies, and the healthcare advocacy groups. Pre-Rule Making Frequently Asked Questions:

FAQ Question	CMS Response
For 2015, why is the JIRA MUC cycle (i.e., May 1 st to July 1 st) so condensed? The 2 month window to submit new measures for consideration does not allow for much time to enter measures into JIRA.	Since 2011, CMS has complied with the pre-rule making statute. Through lessons learned CMS has gleaned that the Measures under Consideration clearance process must begin annually in August in order to meet the statutory deadline of publishing the Measures under Consideration List no later than December 1 st annually. The clearance process involves collaboration, cooperation and communication across multiple CMS, DHHS and OMB components and agencies, which involves federal staff reviews and approvals at many levels within and across each agency's components. If the clearance process commences any later than August annually, CMS is at risk of missing the statutory mandate.
When does clearance begin?	CMS will begin clearance on for the 2015 Measures under Consideration list on Monday, August 10 th

Measures under Consideration Events:

Annually, CMS hosts a series of meetings to kick off the annual Measures under Consideration cycle and refresh pre-rule making stakeholders regarding the following topics: the statute, CMS’ quality strategy, highlights of the prior year’s lessons learned, JIRA system enhancements, pre-rule making federal program specific needs and priorities, as well as an introduction of the current cycle’s milestone and future meeting dates.

For the April 28th, 30th, May 8th and 12th series of webinars, following the live demonstration of JIRA, audience participants will be invited to submit questions via the LiveMeeting application. Due to time constraints, any questions that are not responded to via the LiveMeeting will be added to this document for a CMS response, which will be revised and posted to CMS’ website for training purposes.

JIRA CMS' Measures under Consideration Tracking System:

CMS' Measures under Consideration User Guide, Issue Tracking System Guidance may be downloaded from the CMS website at the following link:
<http://www.cms.gov/Medicare/Quality-Initiatives-Patient-Assessment-Instruments/QualityMeasures/Pre-Rule-Making.html>

FAQ Question	CMS Response
In 2015, why has the number of JIRA fields increased?	JIRA fields have increased in order to create a faster and more seamless review process for new measures. During the first quarter of 2015, CMS convened a workgroup of stakeholders including CMS QMHAG staff and management; the Measures Manager contractor (Battelle), the National Quality Forum, a measure developer (Quality Insights). The group analyzed and reviewed JIRA's data fields to fill important information gaps. The additional fields were determined to be needed by CMS staff to effectively review and approve proposed measures for the annual Measures under Consideration List. The new JIRA data fields are a mix of optional and required fields. If you have questions regarding what optional fields are required by federal program, please check with the respective program/measure lead(s) to find out what optional fields are needed for measure submission. If an optional field is missing data required by the program, the JIRA submission is at risk of not being accepted by the program / measure lead for the Measures under Consideration List.
How do I obtain user credentials for JIRA? What if I forgot my username and password? Does each person have their own JIRA log-in?	In order to gain access to JIRA, reactivate an account, or terminate user credentials, stakeholders should email CMS Measures under Consideration Coordinator, Michelle.Geppi@cms.hhs.gov. User credentials are granted to individuals and should not be shared. When requesting access or reactivation, complete the Accessing JIRA form, located in the User Guide. For more information see Section 1.1 Accessing JIRA of the User Guide. http://www.cms.gov/Medicare/Quality-Initiatives-Patient-Assessment-Instruments/QualityMeasures/Pre-Rule-Making.html
Is my JIRA username and password the same as last year?	Username and passwords should not change, but access may be suspended due to inactivity. If you are unable to access your JIRA account, email CMS' Measures under Consideration Coordinator, Michelle.Geppi@cms.hhs.gov.
If I have access to JIRA but don't see this project yet, will it open on May 1, or do we need to request access?	The Measures under Consideration 2015 project is available in JIRA as of May 1st. If users do not see the 2015 project on May 1, they should email CMS' Measures under Consideration Coordinator, Michelle.Geppi@cms.hhs.gov.
