

Open enrollment is over but you can still sign up!

As an American Indian or Alaska Native you can still sign up for health insurance. Here is what you need to know:

- Members of a federally recognized tribe and Alaska Native shareholders can enroll after the open enrollment period ends. You can enroll anytime and change plans once a month.
- If you applied for an exemption from the shared responsibility payment, you can still sign up. You are still eligible to apply for the Marketplace, Medicaid, or CHIP.

Find out if you and your family qualify for free or low-cost coverage, Medicaid, or CHIP.

Contact your local Indian health program, visit www.healthcare.gov/tribal, or call 1-800-318-2596 (TTY: 1-855-889-4325).
