

Continuing Education Authors and Disclosures

Activity Title: The Medicare Home Health Benefit

Disclosure/Commercial Support

No one in a position to control the content of this activity has anything to disclose. All planners and developers of this activity have signed a disclosure statement indicating that they have no relevant financial interests. This activity was developed without commercial support.

Activity Planners/Developers/Instructors

Developer - Jill Garver has been at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), Provider Compliance Group (PCG), Division of Error Rate Measurement (DERM) since September 2012. During that time she has worked with the Comprehensive Error Rate Testing (CERT) program.

Developer - Hillary Loeffler has been employed by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services since August of 2010. Prior to joining CMS, Mrs. Loeffler worked for the United States Government Accountability Office (GAO) as a Senior Analyst in the health care team from December 2005 to August 2010.

Developer - Ann Palmer has been employed at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services for over 15 years. For most of this period, she has developed Medicare Learning Network® products for Fee-For-Service (FFS) providers. These products include web-based training courses, facilitator's kits, guides, booklets, fact sheets, presentations, and MLN Matters® articles. Ms. Palmer has also planned and conducted several national FFS provider conference calls.

Physician Reviewer - Dr. Crystal Simpson is a practicing physician who teaches medical students, residents, and fellows in geriatric medicine and gerontology. She refers patients to home health on a regular basis.

Developer - Randy Thronset has been employed by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) since March of 1991. Prior to joining CMS, Mr. Thronset worked as a contractor at CMS (then the Health Care Financing Administration) as a computer programmer responsible for the Medicaid Statistical Information System.