Note: This article was updated on May 7, 2013, to reflect current Web addresses. All other information remains unchanged.

Provider Types Affected

All Medicare hospitals and physicians

Provider Action Needed

Affected providers should note that this instruction provides additional information regarding coding under the Healthcare Common Procedure Coding System (HCPCS) for low-osmolar contrast material. It corrects the effective date for the reinstatement of selected HCPCS codes and the change in status of HCPCS code A9525.

Background

On January 23, 2004, Change Request 3053 - Emergency Correction to Healthcare Common Procedure Coding System (HCPCS) Codes for Low-Osmolar Contrast Material was issued, and it provided the following instructions:

- Reinstatement of Healthcare Common Procedure Coding System (HCPCS) codes A4644 through A4646; and
- Change in status of HCPCS code A9525 to "not payable by Medicare."
- The effective date for these changes was given as April 1, 2004.

Disclaimer

This article was prepared as a service to the public and is not intended to grant rights or impose obligations. This article may contain references or links to statutes, regulations, or other policy materials. The information provided is only intended to be a general summary. It is not intended to take the place of either the written law or regulations. We encourage readers to review the specific statutes, regulations and other interpretive materials for a full and accurate statement of their contents.

Note: This April 1, 2004 date was incorrect. These changes are to be made retroactive to January 1, 2004. Thus, codes A4644 through A4646 are reinstated as of January 1, 2004 and code A9525 is invalid for dates of service on or after January 1, 2004.

On February 20, 2004, Change Request 3128 was issued. It updated the Medicare Physician Fee Schedule Database as follows:

- Status indicator E was assigned to codes A4644 through A4646; and
- Status indicator I was assigned to code A9525.
- The effective date for these changes was given as January 1, 2004.

Codes A4644 thru A4646 have been reinstated in the HCPCS.
