

Governance

The HIGLAS Change Control Board (HCCB) is CMS' governing entity that has final decision-making authority of how business and technical requirements are implemented into HIGLAS.

The HIGLAS Program Office (HPO) is responsible for managing technical and programmatic aspects of HIGLAS.

The Requirements Management Committee (RMC) is comprised of business and system owners responsible for reviewing and evaluating proposed system changes.

