Homebound Status

Medicare Definition of Confined to the Home (i.e., "homebound")

The patient is considered homebound if the following two criteria are met:

1. *The patient, because of illness or injury, needs the aid of supportive devices such as crutches, canes, wheelchairs, and walkers; requires the use of special transportation; or the assistance of another person in order to leave their place of residence; OR have a condition such that leaving his/her home is medically contraindicated, AND
2. There must exist a normal inability to leave the home, AND if the patient does leave the home, it requires a considerable and taxing effort.

If the patient does in fact leave the home, the patient may nevertheless be considered homebound if the absences from the home are infrequent or for periods of relatively short duration, or are attributable to the need to receive health care treatment.

Based on the Medicare Definition of “Confined to the Home” (i.e. “Homebound”):
