

Continuing Education Authors and Disclosures

---

Activity Title: Power Mobility Pearls for the Practicing Physician

Disclosure/Commercial Support

No one in a position to control the content of this activity has anything to disclose. All planners and developers of this activity have signed a disclosure statement indicating that they have no relevant financial interests. This activity was developed without commercial support.

Activity Planners/Developers/Instructors

Robert D. Hoover, Jr., MD, MPH, FACP, presenter/developer, is Chief Medical Officer at CGS Administrators, LLC. As a contractor medical director, he is responsible for coverage, coding, claim review and technology assessment for durable medical equipment, orthotics and prosthetics in the fee-for-service Medicare program. His area of responsibility, the southeastern United States, encompasses 15 states and the territories of Puerto Rico and the US Virgin Islands.

Dr. Hoover attended medical school at the University of South Alabama College of Medicine and completed his residency in Internal Medicine at Vanderbilt University Medical Center in Nashville, TN. He is board-certified in Internal Medicine and is a Fellow in the American College of Physicians. Dr. Hoover also holds a Master's of Public Health from the Medical College of Wisconsin.

Mary Kearns, developer, has worked as a Health Insurance Specialist for the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) since 2011. She studied health administration & policy before coming to CMS. Since working for CMS, she has worked exclusively in provider education planning and development.

Deborah Ricketts, developer, has been employed by Palmetto GBA, a Medicare Administrative Contractor (MAC), from December 2010 to the present as a Policy Communication Specialist. From September 2011 to September 2013, she was employed by Kelly Services and was contracted by Palmetto GBA, to manage a project to reduce the Comprehensive Error Rate and develop provider education. From July 2001-June 2011, she was employed by Palmetto GBA, and held positions as an Appeals Unit Supervisor and as a Project Specialist with expertise in call center training and development responsibilities.