

Subhealth Plan Category Definitions

Company: A company is the legal entity licensed to sell health insurance products and plans in one or more States.

Issuer: An issuer is an entity licensed to engage in the business of insurance in a State, and which is subject to State law which regulates insurance.

Product: A package of benefits that an Issuer offers that is reported to State regulators in an insurance filing.

Line of Business: A set of one or more highly related health plan products or services.

Other Category: Any other type of health plan that does not fall into any of the other categories.