Overview of Field Testing

Field testing is taking place from August 17 to September 18, 2020. As a part of the measure development process, field testing is an opportunity for clinicians and other stakeholders to learn about episode-based cost measures and provide input on the draft specifications. During field testing, we will:

- distribute Field Test Reports on gpp.cms.gov for group practices and solo practitioners who meet the minimum number of cases for each measure;
- post draft measure specifications (i.e., methodology and codes list) and supplemental documentation, such as testing results, on the MACRA Feedback Page;¹ and
- collect stakeholder feedback on the draft specifications for each measure.

Clinicians are identified by a unique Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) and National Provider Identifier (NPI) combination (TIN-NPI), while clinician groups are identified by their TIN. Field Test Reports will be available at the clinician group practice and solo practitioner (or clinician) levels. For clinician group practices, the group practice must meet the minimum number of cases for the measures across all clinicians billing under the group practice TIN. For solo practitioners, the individual clinician must meet the minimum number of cases. The information in the Field Test Report is for field testing purposes only. The measurement period for the Field Test Report is January 1 to December 31, 2019.
