Welcome To The Medicare Coverage Database Archive

Overview

What is the MCD Archive Site?

The CMS Medicare Coverage Database Archive Site (MCD Archive) contains Local Coverage documents (i.e., Local Medical Review Policies [LMRPs], Local Coverage Documents [LCDs], Proposed/Draft LCDs, and Articles).

LMRPs are policies that pre-date LCDs and were retired in their entirety by December 2005. All LMRPs are posted on the MCD Archive. LMRPs could include "reasonable and necessary" information, benefit category, and statutory exclusion provisions.

LCDs and Articles replaced LMRPs. LCDs may include "reasonable and necessary" information while Articles may contain benefit category, statutory exclusion, and coding provisions. Each document (LCD and/or Article) contains links at the end of the form for contractors to associate other related documents.

Document Update Schedule

- Proposed/Draft ICD-10 LCDs move to the MCD Archive 90 days after being released to the final LCD.
- Retired ICD-10 LCDs and Articles move to the MCD Archive 1 year after their retirement dates.
- Superseded versions of active ICD-10 LCDs and Articles move to the MCD Archive after 1 year.

Please Note: All ICD-9 LCDs and Articles now reside on the MCD Archive.

Document Update Schedule

- Proposed/Draft ICD-10 LCDs move to the MCD Archive 90 days after being released to the final LCD.
- Retired ICD-10 LCDs and Articles move to the MCD Archive 1 year after their retirement dates.
- Superseded versions of active ICD-10 LCDs and Articles move to the MCD Archive after 1 year.

User Base

The MCD Archive Site is intended for use by Medicare Contractors, providers, and other healthcare industry professionals who need medical policy (LMRPs/LCDs) and medical policy related (articles) documents.

People with Medicare, family members and caregivers should visit Medicare.gov, the Official U.S. Government Site for People with Medicare, for the latest information on Medicare enrollment, benefits and other helpful tools.

Locating and Viewing Data

Search Function - Users are able to search the MCD Archive using a variety of criteria including state, contractor, key word, date, CPT/HCPCS codes, and Diagnosis codes.

Indexes Function - Users are able to view a set of LMRPs/ LCDs or Articles using a defined set of contactor or state criteria. How documents display on the Index depends if the entire LCD/LMRP or Article is retired; or if the LCD/Article is active and the user desires to view archived versions of the active document.

Reports - Users are able to create two reports on the MCD Archive using a defined set of criteria:

- The "What's New" Report displays all Local Coverage Documents that were updated during a specified CMS MCD update for one or more Contractors; and,
- The "Local Coverage List of Documents by Contractor and Date" displays all Local Coverage Documents in effect for a specified time period for one or more Contractors.

Help and Resources

For further information on: MCD Archive functions and features, Helpful Hints, links to other CMS websites, and the MCD Archive User Guide, please refer to the "Help and Resources" page.

Basket Function - Users are able to place multiple documents into the Basket for further selection, viewing, and printing. Documents display on this page after a Document Search, or a Report Query has been performed; and, the user has checked one or more documents to be added to the Basket.

MCD Archive Compared to the MCD

- ❖ The MCD Archive does not include any National Coverage Information. All current and historical National Coverage Data are retained in the MCD.
- ❖ Since the Archive does not contain any National Coverage Information, there are no Search, Index or Report features for National Coverage.
- ❖ MCD Archive does not include the Alphabetical Index listing of LCDs/Articles that is on the MCD.
- ❖ In the MCD Archive, the Basket does not include the “email” feature that is on the MCD.
- ❖ In the MCD Archive, General Information, CMS Related Links, and Information Links are all located on the “Help and Resources” page. On the MCD, most of this information is located on the Overview Page.
- ❖ The MCD Archive does not include any “active” or “currently in effect” LCDs or Articles. It only includes the following documents:
 - Proposed/Draft ICD-10 LCDs 90 days after being released to the Final LCD.
 - Retired ICD-10 LCDs and Articles with a retirement date that is ≥ 1 year old
 - Superseded versions of active and retired ICD-10 LCDs and Articles that are more than 1 year old.
 - All LMRPs.
 - All ICD-9 LCDs and ICD-9 Articles.
- ❖ The MCD Archive does not contain a Data Downloads feature.
- ❖ On Archive results pages, the LCD/Article is listed for each contract number associated to the document whereas the MCD lists each document once.

MCD Archive: Have the Document ID? User the ID Search

- ❖ The simplest search is one where the user has the Document ID. The Search Bar at the top of the page provides a field to enter the Document ID.
- ❖ In this example, L33438 is being used.
- ❖ Click the Go button  to the right of the Document ID field to begin the search.
- ❖ The latest version of the LCD displays unless a specific date of service is used.

The screenshot shows the MCD Archive website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with yellow buttons for various categories: Medicare, Medicaid/CHIP, Medicare-Medicaid Coordination, Private Insurance, Innovation Center, Regulations & Guidance, Research, Statistics, Data & Systems, and Outreach & Education. Below this is a 'Search Home' section. On the left, there is a sidebar with a blue header 'MCD - Archive Site' and a list of links: Overview, Search (highlighted in orange), Indexes, Reports, Basket, and Help & Resources. The main content area has an orange header with the text 'Have the Document ID? Use the ID Search'. Below this header is a search box containing the text 'L33438' and a 'Go' button. To the right of the search box is a small 'X' icon. Below the search box, there is a paragraph of text explaining the search process: 'If you know the Document ID enter it above in the "Have the Document ID?" Search box and click the GO button.. If you would like to complete a more comprehensive search, choose a Document Type. Additional criteria will display for you to refine your search. Once your criteria selection(s) are complete, click the SEARCH NOW button at the bottom of the page.' Below this paragraph is a 'Please Note' section: 'Please Note: When specifying multiple criteria, only records meeting ALL criteria are returned.' Below the note is a red text section: 'ICD-10 Search Information: ICD-10 LCDs and Articles that have been retired before their Original Effective Date cannot be searched using any Date Criteria in Step 3 of the Advanced Search Feature when the in effect date is used. These documents can be found using the following functions:'. Below this section is a list of two functions: '1. Indexes (All LMRPs and Archived Versions of Retired LCDs); and,' and '2. Have the Document ID? Search box'.

MCD Archive: Have the Document ID? Use the ID Search

- ❖ These are the results of the Have the Document ID? Use the ID Search.
- ❖ Note that the LCD is listed for each Contract Number associated to the LCD ID.

The screenshot shows the CMS.gov MCD Archive search results page. The page has a header with the CMS.gov logo and navigation links. Below the header is a search bar with the text 'Learn about your healthcare options' and a 'Search' button. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column contains a sidebar with links: Overview, Search, Indexes, Reports, Basket, and Help & Resources. The right column contains the search results. At the top of the results is a section titled 'Search Results' with a sub-header 'Have the Document ID? Use the ID Search' and a search input field. Below this is a table with the following columns: LMRP/LCD ID, LMRP/LCD Title, Contractor Type, Contractor Name, and a checkbox. The table contains four rows, all with the same LMRP/LCD ID 'L33438' and title 'Octreotide Acetate for Injectable Suspension (Sandostatin LAR depot)'. The Contractor Type is 'A and B and HHH MAC' and the Contractor Name is 'Palmetto GBA (11202) (J - M)'. The first two rows have their checkboxes checked, while the last two are unchecked. A callout points to the 'Contract Numbers' column, and another callout points to the '2 LCDs are in the Basket' callout. At the bottom of the table is a button 'Add Selected Items to Basket'.

- ❖ In Step 2, the State of Alaska is selected. If the user knew the exact contractor, the specific contractor could have been selected. However, it is often better to use the State selection since over the course of the LMRP and LCD history, there have been considerable contractor changes. The Contract Type is another option. However, again the Contract Types have changed over time.

MCD Archive Basket

- The Basket is an administrative tool to collect documents being found via searches, indexes and report results. It provides an area for the user to view, read, and print documents once completed. Basket contents only remain in the Basket while the user is in the MCD Archive session. Once the session is closed, documents are removed from the Basket. There is no email feature in the Archive Basket.

The screenshot shows the CMS.gov website with the 'MCD Archive Basket' section. The header includes the CMS.gov logo, navigation links (Home, About CMS, Newsroom Center, FAQs, Archive), and a search bar. Below the header is a row of yellow buttons for various services: Medicare, Medicaid/CHIP, Medicare-Medicaid Coordination, Private Insurance, Innovation Center, Regulations & Guidance, Research, Statistics, Data & Systems, and Outreach & Education.

The 'Basket' section is highlighted. It contains a table with two columns: 'MCD - Archive Site' and 'Basket'. The 'MCD - Archive Site' column lists links: Overview, Search, Indexes, Reports, Basket (highlighted), and Help & Resources. The 'Basket' column contains text explaining the basket's function and instructions on how to use it. Below the text, a grey box states 'There are no items in your basket'.

MCD Archive Indexes

- ❖ The MCD Archive Indexes are similar to the MCD. However, since the MCD Archive does not contain any National Coverage, there are no National Coverage selections.
- ❖ There are multiple Indexes for LCDs/LMRPs and Articles including Indexes By Contractor and Indexes By State.
- ❖ This slide displays the LMRPs/LCD selections available.
- ❖ Note that the link titled “Archived Versions of Active LCDs” includes very little, if any, data. This is due to all ICD-9 LCDs & Articles were retired effective 09/30/2015 & new ICD-10 documents became effective on 10/01/2015. Since retired documents remain on the MCD for 12 months, very little time has passed for these documents to move to the Site.

MCD Archive Indexes: Articles Index

- ❖ The Articles Indexes work exactly as the LCD Indexes.
- ❖ The only difference in the two sections is that there is no selection for Drafts in the Articles Indexes since only LMRPs/LCDs have Proposed/Draft versions.
- ❖ For examples on how to use these Indexes, please refer to the LMRP/LCDs Index slides.

Indexes

Select Document Type:

Indexes provide users with pre-defined lists of Local Coverage documents. Users may choose from the LCD and/or Article sections below.

Please Note:
The Archive includes: Archived Versions of Active LCDs and Articles, Retired LMRPs/LCDs and Articles, and Proposed/Draft LMRPs/LCDs.

LCDs and Articles effective on and before 09/30/2015 display with ICD-9 Diagnosis Codes. LCDs and Articles effective on and after 10/01/2015 display with ICD-10 Diagnosis Codes.

MCD Archive: Help and Resources

The Help and Resources Page provides general information including the User Guide and Keyboard Shortcuts.

The screenshot shows the CMS.gov website with the 'Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services' header. A navigation bar contains links for Medicare, Medicaid/CHIP, Medicare-Medicaid Coordination, Private Insurance, Innovation Center, Regulations & Guidance, Research, Statistics, Data & Systems, and Outreach & Education. Below this is a 'Help & Resources' section with a left sidebar and a main content area. The sidebar lists 'Overview', 'Search', 'Indexes', 'Reports', 'Basket', and 'Help & Resources' (which is highlighted). The main content area has buttons for 'Email the Helpdesk' and 'MCD Archive User Guide'. It features a 'General Information' section with text about the page's purpose, a link to the user guide, and detailed instructions on keyboard shortcuts. A 'Document Update Schedule' section lists when various ICD-10 LCDs and LMRPs move to the archive. A 'Data Downloads' section notes that the download function is unavailable. Finally, an 'MCD Archive Contact' section provides the email LCD@nerdvana.fu.com.

General Information

The Help and Resources page provides general information about the MCD Archive, related links, and a link to the MCD User Guide.

MCD Archive User Guide - Click on the User Guide Button above to learn about specific queries and functions available in the MCD Archive.

Keyboard Shortcuts - Throughout the MCD Archive, buttons have been enabled with "hot keys" that allow users to execute the button by keyboard instead of the mouse to make the selection. The buttons can be activated by using the "Alt" key on your keyboard, plus one additional letter key. To determine the exact mapping for a button use the mouse to hover the cursor over the button until the "tool tip" window displays with the mapping. Then screen readers can identify the mapping.

Document Update Schedule
Local Coverage Documents move from the live CMS Medicare Coverage Database (MCD) to the MCD Archive in real-time, according to the following schedule:

- Proposed/Draft ICD-10 LCDs move to the MCD Archive 90 days after being released to the final LCD.
- Retired ICD-10 LCDs and Articles move to the MCD Archive 1 year after their retirement dates.
- Superseded versions of active ICD-10 LCDs and Articles move to the MCD Archive after 1 year.
- All LMRPs reside on the MCD Archive.
- All ICD-9 LCDs and Articles now reside on the MCD Archive

Data Downloads - The data download function is not available on the MCD Archive.

MCD Archive Contact - For assistance using the MCD Archive, please contact the Helpdesk at LCD@nerdvana.fu.com.
