

Marketplace Consumer Confirmation Message

Example: Re-enrolled with financial help but needs to confirm information from their application for 2025 coverage

When we send this notice: We send this “automatic re-enrollment” notice after December 15 to consumers who:

- Have 2025 Marketplace coverage through the end of the current coverage year,
- Didn’t actively enroll in a Marketplace plan for coverage to start January 1, 2026, and
- Didn’t tell us to stop their automatic enrollment for 2026 Marketplace coverage.

Consumers also get an Eligibility Determination Notice with updated information about their household’s eligibility for coverage and financial assistance for 2026.

What this notice tells the consumer: The status of their Marketplace plan enrollment for 2026. It encourages the consumer to update their Marketplace application to review the plan we picked for them, or pick a new one that meets their needs. The notice provides detailed next steps depending on re-enrollment outcomes.

- If we successfully re-enrolled household members, it includes:
 - The name of their new plan and when their coverage starts.
 - Whether they qualify for financial help, the amount of their premium tax credit, and why there’s been a change in the amount.
 - What happens if they pick a different plan before Open Enrollment ends.
- If we couldn’t automatically re-enroll household members, it includes:
 - Next steps to continue getting Marketplace health coverage in 2026.

This example is for someone who:

- Is successfully re-enrolled for 2026 in the same plan they had in 2025.
- Remains eligible for the same type of financial help as 2025, and it’s still being used to help pay for their coverage in 2026.
- Must send documents to confirm information from their Marketplace application. If they don’t take this step, they could lose their eligibility for Marketplace coverage and/or their help with costs for 2026 coverage.

2026 Application ID: [number]

Dear [Name 1]:

Warning: You still need to submit documents for your 2025 Marketplace application. If you don't, you could lose your eligibility for Marketplace coverage and/or help with the cost of your Marketplace plan for 2025 and 2026. Log into your Marketplace account (or the account you created through a certified enrollment partner website) to submit documents. If you applied with an agent or broker, you can ask them to upload your documents. Call the Marketplace Call Center or visit HealthCare.gov/verify-information for more information about submitting documents. This eligibility information for 2026 only applies if your household submits the requested documents, even when you're not automatically enrolled.

You're automatically enrolled in the Marketplace plan(s) below for coverage beginning January 1, 2026.

If you enrolled in a different Marketplace plan after December 15, 2025, your plan's coverage starts on February 1, 2026. You can review other plans before Open Enrollment ends on January 15.

Enrolled individuals	Now enrolled in this plan	Will I get financial help for this plan in 2026?
[Name 1]	[Plan name] Plan ID: [ID number] Effective: January 1, 2026	Yes. This full amount of your premium tax credit will be applied to your monthly insurance premium: $[amount]. This plan has lower copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles (cost-sharing reductions).

Update your application right away.

Update your application and compare plans to find one that meets your needs. You can also find out if you qualify for financial help in 2026.

- We used information from the most recent income data sources we have to find out if you qualify for coverage and to estimate your financial help in 2026. This could mean you won't get the right amount of financial help, or you'll owe money when you file your 2026 federal income tax return.
- The additional savings available because of the COVID pandemic ends December 31, 2025. If you qualify for savings in 2026, you'll likely pay more for your Marketplace plan premium.

You won't have a gap in coverage.

You're automatically enrolled because you didn't select a Marketplace plan in time for coverage to start on January 1, 2026.

If you already started updating your Marketplace application for 2026 but didn't finish, you're now enrolled in the plan(s) above.

What should I do next?

Pay your premiums for the new coverage year. Check with your plan to confirm your payment if you need to.

Return to the Marketplace to update your application, then compare plans and make sure you're getting the coverage and financial help you're eligible for in 2026.

Can I get new or different financial help?

Maybe. Update your application to find out if you qualify for different financial help in 2026.

- Log into your Marketplace account and select your 2026 application.
- Make any necessary updates, like changes to your income or household size. Submit your application, then view your Eligibility Results.
- If you don't qualify for financial help based on your income, you may be able to find coverage with a Catastrophic plan (if one's available) or a plan that works with a Health Savings Account (HSA). Catastrophic, Bronze, and some other Marketplace plans can be used with HSAs.
- Compare your coverage options and select a plan. You can choose the plan we automatically enrolled you in, or a different plan.

Can I choose a different plan?

Yes. Make sure the plan you'll be enrolled in for 2026 is the right one for you. During Open Enrollment, you can shop in the Marketplace to find a plan that meets your needs for the new coverage year.

If you pick a different plan, you'll still be covered in the plan(s) shown above for January, unless you qualify for a Special Enrollment Period.

Your premium tax credit is now being applied to your monthly premium. If you want to use less, visit HealthCare.gov and log in to update your 2026 application. When you continue to enrollment, you can change the amount of tax credit you'll use.

Reconcile your premium tax credit

If you use the premium tax credit to reduce your Marketplace premiums, you must "reconcile" the premium tax credit you used during the year when you file your federal income tax return, even if you don't usually file taxes. If you use more of the premium tax credit than you're eligible for based on your final income for the year, you'll have to pay the difference back when you file your taxes. Use the information from your Form 1095-A to complete IRS Form 8962 "Premium Tax Credit (PTC)" and include it with your return.

If you don't file and reconcile your taxes, you'll lose any savings you're getting for your 2026 plan. Visit HealthCare.gov/taxes for details about reconciling.

Keep your Marketplace application up to date

If you have changes during the year, (like a move, marriage, or household income change, or if your employer offers you health coverage), you must report it to us within 30 days. Update your application to:

- Find out if you qualify for a chance to change plans outside of Open Enrollment (called a Special Enrollment Period).
- Check your financial help so you won't owe money when you file your 2026 federal income tax return.
- Let us know that you've reconciled your previous premium tax credits.
- Find out if you or someone in your household might qualify for free or low-cost coverage through Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).

Visit HealthCare.gov/reporting-changes/which-changes-to-report for a complete list of changes you should report to the Marketplace.
