

Update your Marketplace application

New baby? Changes to your income? New home address?

Keep your Marketplace information up to date so you get the right savings and coverage.

1. Log into HealthCare.gov and select your current application.

4. Update your application with your new information.

2. Select "Report a life change" from the menu.

Update your application

3. Select the type of update you need to make.

After you report a change:

- You'll get new eligibility results that explain any new coverage options available to you.
- You'll find out if you qualify for a different amount of savings.
- You may need to submit documents to confirm your life change.

Remember to complete enrollment if you're given the option in your eligibility results.
