Marketplace Eligibility Appeal Rights

- If consumers believe there was a mistake or disagree with certain eligibility determinations made by a Marketplace, they have a right to request an appeal
- This presentation is about appealing to the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services (HHS) Appeals Entity about a Marketplace eligibility determination
  - Also known as the Marketplace Appeals Center
- We'll also briefly discuss some consumer appeal rights from State-based Marketplace appeals entities

Marketplace Eligibility Appeal Rights: Appointing an Authorized Representative

- Consumers may appoint someone as their authorized representative to talk to the Marketplace Appeals Center on their behalf and represent them throughout the process
- The representative can be a family member, friend, advocate, attorney, or another trusted individual
- Consumers must designate their representative in writing and sign the document

Appealing a Marketplace Eligibility Determination

- What determinations can be appealed?
  - Eligibility to buy a Marketplace qualified health plan (QHP), including a catastrophic plan
  - Eligibility for lower costs, including the amount of
    - Advanced Premium Tax Credit (APTC)
    - Cost-Sharing Reductions (CSRs)
  - Eligibility for a Special Enrollment Period to enroll in a Marketplace QHP outside the regular Open Enrollment Period

Appealing a Marketplace Eligibility Determination (Continued)

- Eligibility for Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) for residents of states that have delegated to the Marketplace Appeals Center the appeals of certain types of Medicaid determinations made by the Federally-facilitated Marketplace
- Eligibility for an exemption from the individual shared responsibility payment (fee) requirement
- Any State-based Marketplace's eligibility appeal decision or its decision denying the consumer's request to vacate the dismissal of their eligibility appeal

How to Request a Marketplace Eligibility Appeal

1.
  - Complete an appeal request form
    - Appeal request forms are available at HealthCare.gov/marketplace-appeals/ways-to-appeal/
    - Be sure to use the form for the state in which the consumer resides
  - Or, write a letter explaining the reason for the appeal request

THEN

  - Mail the completed appeal request forms and/or letters to Health Insurance Marketplace
465 Industrial Boulevard
London, KY 40750-0061
  - Or, fax the completed appeal request forms and/or letters to 1-877-369-0129

When an Eligibility Appeal is Received

---

- How does the Marketplace Appeals Center determine if an appeal is valid?
  - Timeliness: the request must be received
    - Within 90 days of the contested Marketplace eligibility determination;
    - Within 30 days of a State-based Marketplace (SBM) appeal decision; or
    - Within 30 days of notice from a SBM declining to reopen the appeal after it was dismissed by the SBM

- The request must be about a matter that's appealable, as described on slides 5 and 6
- The appeal must be requested by a consumer or by an authorized representative appointed in writing by the consumer
- If the appeal request doesn't meet these requirements, the consumer will get a notice explaining why the request is invalid and how to fix the problem and resubmit the appeal

After The Consumer Files an Appeal

---

- If the appeal is valid, consumers who appeal (appellants) get a letter from the Marketplace Appeals Center that
  - Acknowledges receipt of their appeal
  - Includes their appeal number, which uniquely identifies their case
    - Consumers should write their appeal number on any documents they submit to the Marketplace Appeals Center
  - Provides a description of the appeals process
  - Includes instructions for submitting additional material for consideration, if necessary

Types of Resolution

- Informal Resolution
  - If possible, the Marketplace Appeals Center will try to resolve the appeal based on the available information
  - This decision will be binding if the consumer is satisfied
- Hearing
  - In some cases, the appeal may go straight to a hearing
  - If the consumer is dissatisfied with the informal resolution, a hearing may be requested

Informal Resolution of Eligibility Appeals

- The Marketplace Appeals Center works with appellants to resolve eligibility appeals informally
  - Reviews facts and evidence submitted by the appellant and those that are available from the Marketplace
  - Sometimes contacts appellants by phone or mail
  - Sends Informal Resolution Notice
    - Describes proposed resolution and decision
  - If appellant is satisfied, the appeal decision follows
    - Unless appellant voluntarily withdraws the appeal
  - Appellants who aren't satisfied may request a hearing

Marketplace Eligibility Appeal Hearing

- Hearings are more formal
  - Consumers will receive notice of the scheduled hearing in writing 15 days prior to the hearing date unless
    - The appellant requests an earlier hearing date (and one is available)
    - A hearing date sooner than 15 days is necessary to process an expedited appeal as agreed to by the appellant
  - Conducted by telephone
  - Presided by a Federal Hearing Officer
  - Appellants and any witnesses are under oath

Eligibility Appeal Decisions

- After the hearing concludes, the Federal Hearing Officer carefully considers all evidence and testimony of the appellant and any witnesses
- The Hearing Officer makes the eligibility appeal decision
  - The decision is mailed to appellant within 90 days from the receipt date of the appeal request or as administratively feasible
  - The decision is final and binding
    - Judicial review may be an option

- The consumer must follow the instructions on the decision letter to ensure implementation
- If the decision finds the contested eligibility determination was incorrect when it was made by the Marketplace, the consumer may decide to have the decision implemented retroactively, based on the date when the consumer received the incorrect determination

- As a part of retroactive effectuation of eligibility appeals decisions
  - A Marketplace plan may owe an appellant a refund if
    - They had paid Marketplace plan premiums to the plan before the appeal was decided, and
    - They're now eligible for a larger premium tax credit and/or lower copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles as a result of the appeal

OR

- An appellant may owe money to their Marketplace plan if
  - They're now enrolling in Marketplace coverage for an earlier date, or
  - They haven't paid their past premium balance(s)
