News Updates | February 24, 2011

CMS is at the HIMSS 2011 Conference!

CMS is in Orlando, Florida for the HIMSS 2011 Annual Conference & Exhibition. The booth is #706 in the Orange County Convention Center, next to the Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology exhibit. Both agencies have been coordinating at the conference to provide assistance to eligible professionals on the Medicare and Medicaid Electronic Health Record (EHR) Incentive Programs and HITECH.

Representatives from the CMS EHR Incentive Programs are on-site to discuss all of your questions about the programs — from registration and attestation to receiving payments. There are also computers available so attendees can go through the registration process with a representative. Attendees are encouraged to visit the booth and get the information they need to register, attest and take advantage of the incentive payment programs.

Additionally, be sure to stop by the following session featuring Dr. Donald Berwick, Administrator for the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services:
